

Terms and conditions of the “Global Protection 2013 Beta Competition” organized by Panda Security

AIM: Panda Security, with registered offices at Gran Vía Don Diego de Haro, 4, 48001 Bilbao, Spain (herein Panda) is organizing the “Global Protection 2013 Beta Competition” available through: <http://www.pandasecurity.com/promotions/betatest/>

The Panda Global Protection 2013 Beta Competition is a contest in which participants can report bugs and comments to Panda Security regarding their experience with the Beta version of Panda Global Protection 2013 under the conditions stated herein. Both the participants and the bugs reported to Panda Security must comply with the requirements established in the present document.

GEOGRAPHIC LIMITS: The Competition is open to users worldwide.

PERIOD: The Competition shall be open from Monday, April 16, 2012 at 10.00h (GMT + 1) to Monday, September 3, 2012 at 10.00h (GMT + 1). Panda reserves the right to suspend, postpone or cancel the Competition at any time prior to the selection of winners, provided there is justification for doing so.

CONDITIONS: The Competition is open to all participants aged 18 and over. The Competition is not open to Panda Security employees, their relatives or former Panda Security employees (including Country Partners). Both the participants and the bugs reported to Panda Security must comply with the requirements established in the present document.

The competition consists in the following phases:

- Participation Phase: From April 15th, 2011 to September 3rd, 2012 (both inclusive). To take part in the competition, participants must download the beta version of Panda Global Protection 2013 and send at least ONE comment, bug or remark on the product to our Beta Department: beta@pandasecurity.com
- Evaluation Phase: Open from the end of the Participation Phase to September 3rd, 2012. During this period of time, an Evaluation Committee will study the bugs reported (quantity and quality) during the Participation Phase in order to determine the competition winners, by applying the evaluation criteria specified in these Terms and Conditions.
- Communication and publication of winners' names: Panda will notify by e-mail the winners within 20 working days after the end of the Evaluation Phase. Panda will inform the winners at the same e-mail address that the participants used to report bugs or remarks on the product.
- Prize delivery phase: Contacted winners must reply to Panda's notification by e-mail within 30 calendar days. Panda Security will then make the prize available through Amazon for the winner to be able to use it immediately. 30 calendar days after the notification, the prize will be canceled if Panda Security does not receive a response from the winner by e-mail.

To take part in the competition, participants must download the beta version of Panda Global Protection 2013 and send at least one comment, bug or remark on the product to our Beta Department: beta@pandasecurity.com

Panda Security may request written proof of fulfillment of the requirements specified in this section by the participant(s), prior to delivering the prize.

EVALUATION CRITERIA: The bugs reported by participants during the Participation Phase must be related to the functions, features and characteristics of Panda Global Protection 2013 Beta version.

The Evaluation Committee will be made up of Panda workers, expert in Panda Global Protection 2013. The Evaluation Committee shall only evaluate the bugs (quantity and quality) reported during the Participation Phase.

The Committee will take into consideration the data submitted by beta testers in order to evaluate their technical skills in testing the product and detecting bugs. Both bug reports and errors reported in the product texts will be considered.

The Evaluation Committee will select the 10 beta testers that prove to have the best skills at analyzing our product (quantity and quality of feedback received) and have most helped Panda Security to improve it.

PRIZES: The 10 winners will each win an Amazon gift card valued at US$200 or 200€ depending on the currency of the country of each winner.

Panda reserves the right to substitute the prizes specified for other prizes within the same range, with an equal or greater value than those indicated in the present Terms and Conditions.

Panda reserves the right to revoke any of the prizes should it detect irregularities. It also reserves the right to cancel or declare any of the prizes void, as well as to take the necessary measures and/or disqualify, with prior notice, the participants and/or bugs reported that do not comply with any of the terms of the Competition Terms and Conditions.

The prize will be notified to winners by email. If any winners cannot be contacted by these means, the prize may be declared void by the Evaluation Committee. Participants give their consent to the use of their data for the purposes of informing them that they have won. Participants agree to have their details published on Panda's website or other media, in the event that they win.

DISCLAIMER IN THE EVENT OF TECHNICAL ISSUES: Panda Security shall not be responsible in the event that problems outside of its control affecting the Internet or causing incorrect transmission of content and, in particular, malicious actions by third parties, affect the running of the Competition.

COMMUNICATION OF WINNERS AND PRIZES: Winners shall be notified by Panda Security via the email addresses used by participants to send their entries to participate in the Beta Competition.

Winners must contact Panda Security by replying to the email notification within 30 calendar days of receipt, specifying an email address at which they wish to receive the Amazon voucher. If Panda Security does not receive a response from the winner by e-mail within 30 calendar days after the notification, the corresponding prize shall be declared void.

Participants give their consent to the use of their data for the purposes of informing them that they have won. Participants agree to have their details published on Panda's website or other media, in the event that they win.

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA: In accordance with the Spanish Organic Law 15/1999, on the Protection of Personal Data, Panda Security informs you that the data collected as a result of your participation in the present competition shall be included in an automated data file belonging to Panda Security International, with registered offices at Calle Gran Vía de Don Diego López de Haro 4, 48001 Bilbao (Spain); and shall be processed by Panda Security in accordance with applicable legislation governing protection of personal data, in order to administer the different stages of the competition, as well as to send you marketing and/or promotional information that may be of interest to you, by any means including electronically. Panda Security guarantees that you may access, rectify, cancel and object to the data, as well as unsubscribing from all electronic communication, notifying Panda Security by sending an email to legal\_affairs@pandasecurity.com or by writing to the following address: Panda Security, Legal Affairs Office, Calle Gran Vía de Don Diego López de Haro 4, 48001 Bilbao (Spain), clearly indicating your first name, last name, postal address and email address.

Panda Security shall take all possible measures to ensure confidential treatment of said data.

GENERAL: Should any of the above conditions be legally null or void, this circumstance will not affect the other terms and conditions, which shall remain fully valid and effective. Panda Security reserves the right to alter the terms and conditions of this promotion. Participation in the present competition implies acceptance of the present terms and conditions.

The Panda Security products and this competition have not been authorized, sponsored or in any other way approved by Amazon.
